What is the National Association of Rural Health Clinics (NARHC)?
NARHC is the only association in the country focused entirely on Rural Health Clinics. We are a non-profit affiliation of Rural Health Clinics (RHCs). Our purpose is to promote rural health clinics. There are currently 900+ RHCs which are members with NARHC. We educate and inform the RHC community about ever-changing RHC policies and procedures through our conferences. Our national conferences are provided semiannually, in the spring and fall. Attending our conferences is vital for the professionals within the RHC community to stay current on legislative changes affecting RHCs across the nation. We anticipate 300+ to attend this fall’s conference.

About our Conferences
Our conferences occur semiannually in March and October of every year and are two and a half days long. Rural health professionals of all kinds attend our Institutes ranging from Hospital CEOs, to physicians, to clinic manager, to coders as we offer a variety of topics.
